Hi Kyle,

Unfortunately this type of information release is not covered by our student-athlete FERPA release and their declared degree program is considered more private than "directory" information.

You all are welcome to reach out to the student-athletes directly, obviously, and they can share but OSU cannot without an additional FERPA release.

Sorry about that,

Hey!

Can you pull a list to see if there are any engineering athletes on baseball and softball!? If not... How about men's and women's rowing!? If you can get me a list of them that would be HUGE! Trying to help BSP on something...

Thanks!
Kyle
